

ReadyKidSA Coalition
Results-Based Accountability Meeting
November 8, 2016 | 1:30 to 4:30 PM
PK4SA | 1235 Enrique Barrera Parkway

Purpose

This meeting convenes ReadyKidSA coalition partners to continue laying the foundation for strategic planning and implementation using the Results-Based Accountability framework, with the focus to achieve measurable outcomes for very young children in the city and county.

As desired meeting results, participants will:

- Refine the result statements that frame the RBA work of ReadyKidSA
- Determine a set of based on research-based metrics for the first result area

TOPICS, CONVERSATIONS, AND SESSION RESULTS

Welcome and Agenda Review

Getting to Results: Community Priorities of the ReadyKidSA Coalition

- What do we want for the children in our community-at-large?

Result: Participants refine the result statements which frame the coalition's work

Population Indicators: A Presentation by CI:Now on the research-based indicators to carry forward

- How do we quantify progress at the population level for children being SMART?

Result: Participants determine a set of headline indicators for the first priority area

Population Indicators: A Presentation by CI:Now on the research-based indicators to carry forward

- How do we quantify progress at the population level for children being HEALTHY?
- * Activity to be done with time permitting

Result: Participants determine a set of headline indicators for the second priority area

Check Out and Adjourn